

Eggescliffe Youth & Community Centre

Some of the members aged fourteen and above have taken part in the Young Active Participants Award and the course involved the following:

- Identify the roll played by their organisation
- Have basic knowledge of communication methods
- Have basic knowledge of group working methods
- Know that support is offered on a variety of issues in different settings
- Identify the benefits of planning and evaluating group work
- Identify resources available to each of them
- Appreciate terminology used in relation to equal opportunities
- Recognise groups are discriminated
- Recognise the benefits of reflecting upon their own work

The young people can put this accreditation to good use as they all help to run the year 7 nights at the club. They have shown an interest, gained knowledge and learnt responsibilities, using the club as a placement.
