Book of the Month The Whale Road by ROBERT LOW

The first in a brand new series charting the adventures of the Oathsworn, a band of Vikings on the chase for the secret hoard of Attila the Hun. When Orm Rurikson leaves Norway to join his estranged father on the Fjord Elk, he becomes an unlikely member of a notorious crew. The Oathsworn, named after the spoken bond that ties them in brotherhood, they ply a casual trade on the ocean wave, selling their swords to the highest bidder. But times are changing. Loyalty to the Old Norse Gods is fading, and the followers of the mysterious 'White Christ' are gaining power across Europe. Hired as relic-hunters by the merchant rulers of a bustling city, the Oathsworn are sent in search of a legendary sword of untold value to the new religion. Their quest will lead them onto the deep and treacherous waters of the 'whale road', toward the cursed treasure of Attila the Hun.

March's Read

It is 1939. Eva Delectorskaya is a beautiful 28-year-old Russian emigree living in Paris. A war breaks out, she is recruited for the British Secret Service by Lucas Romer a mysterious Englishman and under his tutelage she learns to become the perfect spy, to mask her emotions and trust no one, including those she loves most. Since the war, Eva has carefully rebuilt her life as a typically English wife and mother. But once a spy, always a spy. Now she must complete one final assignment, and this time Eva can't do it alone: she needs her daughter's help.

Fast moving, densely plotted, beautifully observed... - Esquire
