
STOCKTON HERITAGE FAYRE

STOCKTON HIGH STREET • 22 OCTOBER 2016 • 10AM - 4PM

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

- 10am - 10.10am Live Performance
Boss Productions present an extract from the THI* funded play
'For want of a Bob' by Jeff Williams and directed by Michele Plews
- 10.15am - 10.45am Traditional Building Materials
Talk on the different types and uses of traditional building materials
- 11:15am - 11.45am Victorian Sweet Making Demonstration and talk on traditional Victorian sweet making and the new 'Newbo's Creams' by Stockton's 'Victorian Sweet Kitchen'
- 12pm - 12.10pm Live Performance
Boss Productions present a second extract from the THI* funded play
'For want of a Bob' by Jeff Williams and directed by Michele Plews
- 12.15pm - 12.45pm Timber Sash Window Repair
Presentation on how to make and repair a traditional timber sash window
- 1.15pm - 1.45pm 'Stories from the High Street'
Presentation on the THI funded 'Stories from the High Street' project
- 1.45pm - 2.15pm Traditional Brick Bonds and Courses
Presentation on traditional styles of brick bonds and courses

*THI: The Central Stockton Townscape Heritage Initiative

TRADERS AND EXHIBITORS

1 Beamish Museum

Beamish's 1950s caravan reveals life in the mid-20th Century

2 Sylvan Skills

Drop-in workshop for all the family:

Build a Wattle and Daub wall, and take home a home-made hurdle

3 Historic England

Display on the work of Historic England, and the recently launched '2016 Heritage at Risk campaign'

4 Central Stockton Townscape Heritage Initiative

Display of THI grant funded projects

5 North East Die-Cast Models

Collectable Die Cast Models, New and Used.

Collectable publications from 1960 onwards

6 Teesside Archives

Display of Teesside Archives' resources and Historic Building Plans of Stockton. Information and advice on using and accessing the Archives

7 Durham Record Office

Display of information and resources available from Durham Record Office. Advice on where to look on the website to access family records etc.

8 Alice's Vintage Kitchen

Catering, vintage-style café, food and beverages

9 NA Collectables

Antiques

10 Stockton Reference Library

Display of a selection of local history and genealogy items, 19th century maps and a sample of historic images on the 'Picture Stockton' website

11 Rediscover Stockton

Information and display gift ideas including books, calendars, gifts and souvenirs... a perfect opportunity to start your Christmas shopping

12 Cleveland Industrial Archaeology Society

Display and information on Cleveland Industrial Archaeology Society

TRADERS AND EXHIBITORS

13 Stockton Heritage Group

Information on a potential new independent society championing Stockton's heritage, with an opportunity to register your interest

14 Preston Park Museum

Find out more about the bugs which can damage your home and its contents! Meet a Victorian policeman. Discover more about Preston Park Museum events and activities.

15 Stories from the High Street

A display of this THI funded project, showcasing the stories researched

16 'Pictures of Stockton Past': Book signing

Alan Bettaney will be signing copies of his new book on 'Pictures of Stockton Past'. The book will be available for sale at the event

17 Victorian Sweet Kitchen

Traditionally-made Victorian sweets for sale

18 Alan Gardner Associates

Drop-in home owners surgery. Ask the Experts for info and advice on the care and maintenance of traditionally constructed buildings. Display, activities and info on traditional construction materials

19 North East War Memorials Project

Display with help and advice on how to find where your relatives name is remembered on a local war memorial

20 Pippa Teas

Traditional loose leaf teas, with a nod to Stockton's former Tea Dealers

21 Tees Archaeology

Display of archaeological artefacts and handling objects. Booklets on local archaeological heritage. Children's activities

22 Millston Postcards

Vintage and collectable Postcards and History books

23 Creative Glass

Local Stockton company specialising in the design and production of architectural and decorative glass. Display and info on the making and use of different types of glass

ACTIVITIES AVAILABLE THROUGHOUT THE DAY:

- Drop-in Home Owners Surgery
'Ask the Experts'. Advice on the repair and maintenance of historic buildings. Display of traditional building materials.
Have a go at building a traditional brick bond and brick course
- Wattle and Daub workshop activities
Try your hand at the ancient craft of Wattle & Daub; make a hazel panel and cover it with clay daub; make a mini hurdle to take away with you
- Beamish Museum
Visit and experience Beamish's 1950s vintage caravan
- Films and historic photographs
TV screen showing old photographs of Stockton Town Centre and a film showing the making of Stockton's latest visitor attraction, the 'Stockton Flyer'
- Victorian Policeman
Meet Preston Park Museum's Victorian Policeman
- Book signing: 'Stockton Past and Present'
Alan Bettaney will be signing copies of his new book
- Tees Archaeology
Fun activities, archaeological finds and handling objects for all the family

www.stockton.gov.uk/grantsforheritagebuildings